Roger Orozco and Nora Orozco,

PETITIONER

v.

Michael Hwang

RESPONDENT

STIPULATED MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE TRIAL BRIEF

In accordance with the Trademark Rules of Practice, the parties by this motion stipulate to extend the due date by 30 days for Petitioner to file its trial brief.

The parties stipulate that Petitioner, Roger Orozco and Nora Orozco, is allowed until August 13, 2008 to file its trial brief.

This stipulation has been stipulated and agreed in an email between Petitioner's counsel Kurt Kosnig and Respondent's counsel, Irene Hudson on July 10, 2008.

The extension will allow the parties the additional time to review, finalize, and execute a settlement agreement. The finalization of the settlement agreement will result in the amicable resolution of this entire matter. If the parties are successful in the finalization of the agreement, the pending Cancellation will be dismissed, thus conserving the resources of the Board.

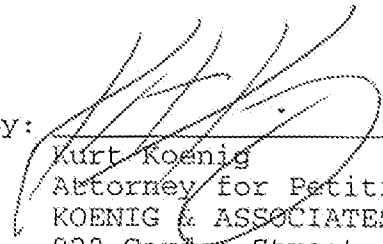

The parties believe the foregoing which will save both parties from preparing their briefs while at the same time they are finalizing a settlement agreement, constitutes good cause for the requested extension and request approval of the same by the Board.

This stipulation is being submitted online via ESTTA pursuant to Rule 2.121(d).

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: July 11, 2008
